

PATH TO FREEDOM

"None are more hopelessly enslaved than those who falsely believe they are free."
[Goethe]

"The ideal tyranny is that which is ignorantly self-administered by its victims. The most perfect slaves are, therefore, those which blissfully and unawaredly enslave themselves [because of their own legal ignorance]."
[Dresden James]

Our Mission

"Is this not the fast [act of faith, worship, and OBEDIENCE] that I [God] have chosen [for believers]:
To loose the bonds of wickedness,
To undo the heavy burdens,
To let the oppressed go free,
And that you break every yoke [franchise, contract, tie, dependency, or "benefit" with the government]?"
[Isaiah 58:6, Bible, NKJV]

"The Spirit of the Lord God is upon Me,
Because the Lord has anointed Me
To preach good tidings to the poor;
He has sent Me to heal the brokenhearted,
To proclaim liberty to the [government] captives
And the opening of the prison [government FARM, Form #12.020] to those who are bound;
To proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord,
And the day of vengeance of our God:"
[Isaiah 61:1-2, Bible, NKJV]

The law of the Lord [Form #13.001] is perfect, converting the soul;
The testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple;
The statutes of the Lord [Form #13.001] are right, rejoicing the heart;
The commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes;
The fear of the Lord is clean, enduring forever;
The judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether.
More to be desired are they than gold,
Yea, than much fine gold;
Sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb.
Moreover by them Your servant is warned,
And in keeping them there is great reward ["benefit" of the Heaven franchise, Form #05.030].

Who can understand his errors?
Cleans me from secret faults.
Keep back Your servant also from presumptuous sins [Form #05.017];
Let them not have dominion [control, influence or "benefit"] over me.
Then I shall be blameless [under God's laws],
And I shall be innocent of great transgression [Form #05.043].

Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart
Be acceptable in Your sight,
O Lord, my strength and my Redeemer.
[Psalm 19:7-14, Bible, NKJV]

On Why you should care about fighting crime and corruption in government

F&#K EVIL!!!
<https://archive.org/details/youtube-IF9GsE5Mfg>

On PERSONAL RESPONSIBILITY for protecting ONE'S OWN freedom

"Liberty means responsibility. That's why most men dread it."
[George Bernard Shaw]

"Freedom, liberty, and sovereignty are NOT spectator sports."
[SEDM]

"The price of freedom is eternal vigilance on EVERYONE'S part, not just OUR part."
[SEDM]

"You can only DESERVE or have a RIGHT to that which you are willing to GIVE and to EARN. That's a corollary to The Golden Rule in Matt. 7:12: Do unto others as you would have them do unto you. It is also a restatement of the requirement for equal protection and equal treatment that is the foundation of American jurisprudence."
[SEDM]

"A person dependent on somebody else for everything from potatoes to opinions may declare that he is a free [SOVEREIGN] man, and his government may issue a certificate granting him his freedom, but he will not be free. ... How can he be free if he can do nothing for himself? ... Men are free precisely to the extent that they are equal to their own needs. The most able are the most free."
[Wendell Berry, "Discipline and Hope" in A Continuous Harmony (1972), p. 124]

"The privilege against self-incrimination [Fifth Amendment] is neither accorded to the passive resistant, nor the person who is ignorant of their rights, nor to one who is indifferent thereto. It is a fighting clause. Its benefits can be retained only by sustained combat. It cannot be claimed by an attorney or solicitor. It is only valid when insisted upon by a belligerent claimant in person."
[U.S. v. Johnson, 76 F.Supp. 538 (1947), Emphasis added]

"The person who risks nothing does nothing, has nothing, and IS nothing. They may avoid suffering and sorrow, but they cannot learn, feel, change, grow, love, and live. Chained by their certitudes, they are a slave, they have forfeited their freedom. Only a person who risks is free."
[Unlimited Liability Universe, Family Guardian Fellowship;
SOURCE: <http://famguardian.org/Subjects/Spirituality/Articles/UnlimitedLiabilityUniverse.htm>]

"But he who looks into the perfect law of liberty [the Bible, Form #13.001] and continues in it, and is not a forgetful hearer but a DOER of the work, this one will be blessed in what he does."
[James 1:25, Bible, NKJV]

Enemies of freedom

"If you make yourselves sheep, the wolves will eat you."
[Benjamin Franklin]

"The chief enemies of republican freedom are mental sloth, conformity, bigotry, superstition, credulity, monopoly in the market of ideas, and utter, benighted ignorance."
[Adele v. State of Florida, 385 U.S. 39, 49 (1967)]

"...the greatest menace to freedom is an inert [passive, ignorant, and uneducated] people [who refuse, as jurists and voters and active citizens, to expose and punish evil in our government] "
[Whitney v. California, 274 U.S. 357 (1927)]

"This I say, therefore, and testify in the Lord, that you should no longer walk as the rest of the Gentiles walk, in the futility of their mind, having their understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God, because of the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart; who, being past feeling, have given themselves over to lewdness, to work all uncleanness with greediness."
[Eph. 4:17-19, Bible, NKJV]

"The only thing necessary for evil to triumph is for good men to do nothing or to trust bad men to do the right thing."
[SEDM]

"...it is not good for a soul to be without knowledge,"
[Prov. 19:2, Bible, NKJV]

"It is dangerous to be right when the government is wrong."

[SEDM]

“My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge.”
[Hosea 4:6, Bible, NKJV]

“...we should no longer be [presumptuous] children, tossed to and fro and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the trickery of men, in the cunning craftiness of deceitful plotting, but speaking the truth in love, may grow up in all things into Him who is the head—Christ.”
[Eph. 4:14, Bible, NKJV]

“One who turns his ear from hearing the law [God's law or man's law], even his prayer is an abomination.”
[Prov. 28:9, Bible, NKJV]

“If a nation expects to be ignorant and free... it expects what never was and never will be.”
[Thomas Jefferson]

“But this crowd that does not know [and quote and follow and use] the law is accursed.”
[John 7:49, Bible, NKJV]

“Salvation is far from the wicked, For they do not seek [Your \[God's\] statutes.](#)”
[Psalm 119:155, Bible, NKJV]

“Most people prefer to believe that their leaders are just and fair, even in the face of evidence to the contrary, because once a citizen acknowledges that the government under which he lives is lying and corrupt, the citizen has to choose what he or she will do about it. To take action in the face of corrupt government entails risks of harm to life and loved ones. To choose to do nothing is to surrender one's self-image of standing for principles. Most people do not have the courage to face that choice. Hence, most propaganda is not designed to fool the critical thinker but only to give moral cowards an excuse not to think [or act] at all.”
[Michael Rivero (1952 -) Composer, production engineer]

Sources of freedom

“Ye shall know the Truth and the Truth shall make you free”
[Jesus in John 8:32, Bible, NKJV]

“Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and He will lift you up [above your government].”
[James 4:10, Bible, NKJV]

“But as for me and my house, WE WILL SERVE [ONLY] THE LORD! ”
[Josh. 24:15, Bible, NKJV]

“And thou shalt teach them ordinances and laws of both [God and man], and shalt shew them the way wherein they must walk, and the work [of obedience to God] that they must do. ”
[Exodus 18:20, Bible, NKJV]

“This Book of the Law [God's Law] shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate in it day and night, that you may observe to do according to all that is written in it. For then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will have good success. Have I not commanded you? Be strong and of good courage; do not be afraid, nor be dismayed, for the LORD your God is with you wherever you go.”
[Joshua 1:8-9, Bible, NKJV]

“Only the educated are free. ”
[Epictetus, Discourses]

“Knowledge will forever govern ignorance, and people who mean to be their own governors, must arm themselves with the power which knowledge gives.”
[James Madison]

“The American people have always regarded education and acquisition of knowledge as matters of supreme importance which should be diligently promoted in order to maintain and protect their [liberty]. The Ordinance of 1787 declares: Religion, morality and knowledge being necessary to good government and the happiness [and liberty] of mankind, schools and the means of education shall forever be encouraged.”

[Meyer v. State of Nebraska, 262 U.S. 390 (1923)]

“Of all the dispositions and habits which lead to political prosperity, Religion and morality are indispensable supports. In vain would that man claim the tribute of Patriotism who should labor to subvert these great Pillars of human happiness, these firmest props of the duties of Men and citizens. The mere politician, equally with the pious man, ought to respect and to cherish them. A volume could not trace all their connections with private and public felicity. Let it simply be asked, “where is the security for property, for reputation, for life, if the sense of religious obligation desert the oaths which are the instruments of investigation in courts of justice?” And let us with caution indulge the supposition that morality can be maintained without religion. Whatever may be conceded to the influence of refined education on minds of peculiar structure, reason and experience both forbid us to expect that national morality can prevail in exclusion of religious principle.”

George Washington, [Farewell Address]

“Humble obedience to the Constitution by public servants is the paramount 'compelling state interest'.”
[SEDM]

“We of this mighty western Republic have to grapple with the dangers that spring from popular self-government tried on a scale incomparably vaster than ever before in the history of mankind, and from an abounding material prosperity greater also than anything which the world has hitherto seen.

As regards the first set of dangers, it behooves us to remember that men can never escape being governed. Either they must govern themselves or they must submit to being governed by others. If from lawlessness or fickleness, from folly or self-indulgence, they refuse to govern themselves then most assuredly in the end they will have to be governed from the outside. They can prevent the need of government from without only by showing they possess the power of government from within. A sovereign cannot make excuses for his failures; a sovereign must accept the responsibility for the exercise of power that inheres in him; and where, as is true in our Republic, the people are sovereign, then the people must show a sober understanding and a sane and steadfast purpose if they are to preserve that orderly liberty upon which as a foundation every republic must rest.”

[President Theodore Roosevelt; Opening of the Jamestown Exposition; Norfolk, VA, April 26, 1907]

Protection of those such as us who teach others about freedom, rights, religion, and morality

“...The constitutional rights of those spreading their religious beliefs through the spoken and printed word are not to be gauged by standards governing retailers or wholesalers of books. The right to use the press for expressing one's views is not to be measured by the protection afforded commercial handbills. It should be remembered that the pamphlets of Thomas Paine were not distributed free of charge. It is plain that a religious organization needs funds to remain a going concern. But an itinerant evangelist, however misguided or intolerant he may be, does not become a mere book agent by selling the Bible or religious tracts to help defray his expenses or to sustain him. Freedom of speech, freedom of the press, freedom of religion are available to all, not merely to those who can pay their own way. . .”

[Murdock v. Pennsylvania, 319 U.S. 105 (1943)]

“Those who already walk submissively will say there is no cause for alarm. But submissiveness is not our heritage. The First Amendment was designed to allow rebellion [especially towards government corruption and tyranny] to remain as our Heritage. The Constitution was designed to keep the government [and especially the government, with their SLAVE SURVEILLANCE NUMBERS (SSNs)] off the backs of the people. The Bill of Rights was added to keep the precincts of belief and expression, of the press, of political and social activities free from [government, and especially IRS] surveillance. The Bill of Rights was designed to keep agents of government and official eavesdroppers [in the government] away from Assemblies of People [this ministry]. The aim was to allow men to be free and independent to assert their rights against government.”

Laird v. Tatum, [408 U.S. 1; 92 S.Ct. 2318 (1972)]

“This court has not yet fixed the standard by which to determine when a danger shall be deemed clear; how remote the danger may be and yet be deemed present; and what degree of evil shall be deemed sufficiently substantial to justify resort to abridgment of free speech and assembly as the means of protection. To reach sound conclusions on these matters, we must bear in mind why a state is, ordinarily, denied the power to prohibit dissemination of social, economic and political doctrine which a vast majority of its citizens believes to be false and fraught with evil consequence. [274 U.S. 357, 375] Those who won our independence believed that the final end of the state was to make men free to develop their faculties, and that in its government the deliberative forces should prevail over the arbitrary. They valued liberty both as an end and as a means. They believed liberty to be the secret of happiness and courage to be the secret of liberty. They believed that freedom to think as you will and to speak [and educate] as you think are means indispensable to the discovery and spread of political truth; that without free speech and assembly discussion would be futile; that with them, discussion affords ordinarily adequate protection against the dissemination of noxious doctrine; that the greatest menace to freedom is an inert people; that public discussion [and education] is a political duty; and that this should be a fundamental principle of the American government. ³ They recognized the risks to which all human institutions are subject. But they knew that order cannot be secured merely through fear of punishment for its infraction; that it is hazardous to discourage thought, hope and imagination; that fear breeds repression; that repression breeds hate; that hate menaces stable government; that the path of safety lies in the opportunity to discuss [and educate other people about] freely supposed grievances and proposed remedies; and that the fitting remedy for evil counsels is good ones. Believing in the power of reason as applied through public discussion, they eschewed silence [274 U.S. 357, 376] coerced by law [for a corrupted government]-the argument of force in its worst form. Recognizing the occasional tyrannies of governing majorities, they amended the Constitution so that free speech and assembly should be guaranteed." Whitney v. California, [274 U.S. 357 (1927)]

Biblical Relationship of Christians to the Government or "State"

"You shall make no covenant [contract or franchise] with them [foreigners, pagans], nor with their [pagan government] gods [laws or judges]. They shall not dwell in your land [and you shall not dwell in theirs by becoming a "resident" in the process of contracting with them], lest they make you sin against Me [God]. For if you serve their gods [under contract or agreement or franchise], it will surely be a snare to you." [Exodus 23:32-33, Bible, NKJV]

"Therefore, my brethren, you also have become dead to the law [man's law] through the body of Christ [by shifting your legal domicile to the God's Kingdom], that you may be married to another—to Him who was raised from the dead, that we should bear fruit [as agents, fiduciaries, and trustees] to God. For when we were in the flesh, the sinful passions which were aroused by the law were at work in our members to bear fruit to death. But now we have been delivered from the law [man's law], having died to what we were held by, so that we should serve in the newness of the Spirit [and newness of God's Holy law] and not in the oldness of the letter." [Rom. 7:4-6, Bible, NKJV]

"Do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Whoever therefore wants to be a friend ["citizen", "resident", "taxpayer", "inhabitant", "franchisee", "public officer, or "subject" under a king or political ruler] of the world for any man-made kingdom other than God's Kingdom] makes himself an enemy of God." [James 4:4, Bible, NKJV]

"And when you saw that Mahesh king of the Ammonites came against you, you said to me, 'No, but a king [or political ruler] shall reign over [above and superior in sovereignty to] us,' when the Lord your God was your king. [. . .] And all the people said to Samuel, "Pray for your servants to the Lord your God, that we may not die; for we have added to all our sins the evil of asking a king [or political ruler above us] for ourselves." [1 Sam. 12:12, 19, Bible, NKJV]

"Do not walk in the statutes of your fathers [the heathens], nor observe their judgments [court rulings], nor defile yourselves with their [pagan government] idols. I am the LORD your God: Walk in My statutes, keep My judgments, and do them; hallow My Sabbaths, and they will be a sign between Me and you, that you may know that I am the LORD your God." [Ezekial 20:10-20, Bible, NKJV]

"You shall have no other gods [including political rulers, governments, or earthly laws] before Me [or My commandments]." [Exodus 20:3, Bible, NKJV]

"But as for me and my house, WE WILL SERVE [ONLY] THE LORD!"
[Josh. 24:15, Bible, NKJV]

Why you should begin your Journey to Freedom

"Again, the kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which a man found and hid; and for joy over it he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field.
[Matt. 13:44, Bible, NKJV]

"The law of Your [God's] mouth is better to me Than thousands of coins of gold and silver.
[Prov. 119:72, Bible, NKJV]

"Be diligent to [investigate and expose the truth for yourself and thereby] present yourself [and the public servants who are your fiduciaries and stewards under the Constitution] approved to God, a worker who does not need to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word [and the deeds] of truth. But shun profane babblings [government propaganda, tyranny, and usurpation] for they will increase to more ungodliness. And their message [and their harmful effects] will spread like cancer [to destroy our society and great Republic]."
[2 Tim. 2:15-17, Bible, NKJV]

"The violence [verbal, financial, and physical] of the wicked [corrupt government] will destroy them [passive believers] because they refuse to do justice."
[Prov. 21:7, Bible, NKJV]

"Better is a little with righteousness, than vast revenues without justice."
[Prov. 16:8, Bible, NKJV]

Why the Journey to Freedom can be lonely

The Narrow Way

"Enter by the narrow gate; for wide is the gate and broad is the way that leads to destruction, and there are many who go in by it. Because narrow is the gate and difficult is the way which leads to life, and there are few who find it."
[Matt. 7:13-14, Bible, NKJV]

"Liberty Means Responsibility. That's why most men dread it."
[George Bernard Shaw]

"The fact is that the average man's love of liberty is nine-tenths imaginary, exactly like his love of sense, justice and truth. He is not actually happy when free; he is uncomfortable, a bit alarmed, and intolerably lonely. Liberty is not a thing for the great masses of men. It is the exclusive possession of a small and disreputable minority, like knowledge, courage and honor. It takes a special sort of man [a truly GODLY man] to understand and enjoy liberty - and he is usually [regarded wrongfully and unjustly as] an outlaw in democratic societies."
[H.L. Mencken, Baltimore Evening Sun, Feb. 12, 1923]

"The most dangerous man, to any government, is the man who is able to think things out for himself, without regard to the prevailing superstitions and taboos. Almost inevitably he comes to the conclusion that the government he lives under is dishonest, insane and intolerable, and so, if he is romantic, he tries to change it. And even if he is not romantic personally he is very apt to spread discontent among those who are."
[H.L. Mencken, Smart Set magazine, December 1919]

1. Introduction

This document is intended as a basic introduction to freedom concepts. It:

1. Gives a basic background on who we are.
2. Lists the steps necessary to become free and sovereign. See Section 2.
3. Identifies later in Section 6.15 the prerequisites for becoming a Member of the Sovereignty Education and Defense Ministry (SEDM) fellowship. Membership is and always has been absolutely free. Those prerequisites are to complete all the steps that pertain to your situation up to step 14 of Section 2 and to submit our Member Agreement, Form #01.001 to us through email as indicated at the bottom of the agreement.
4. Provides situational tools and resources that Members can use after becoming Members useful in defending their life, liberty, and property from compelled participation in government franchises and licenses. See Section 5.12 and following.
5. Provides a path to get help with problems you may face as a Member.

The sheer volume of materials on the SEDM website can be daunting to new Members and visitors to our website. This is a natural consequence of the irreducible complexity of the legal field in general. The Founding Fathers alluded to this undesirable consequence of a free society based on law when they said:

“It poisons the blessing of liberty itself. It will be of little avail to the people, that the laws are made by men of their own choice, if the laws be so voluminous that they cannot be read, or so incoherent that they cannot be understood; if they be repealed or revised before they are promulgated, or undergo such incessant changes that no man, who knows what the law is to-day, can guess what it will be to-morrow. Law is defined to be a rule of action; but how can that be a rule, which is little known, and less fixed?”

“It has been frequently remarked, with great propriety, that a voluminous code of laws is one of the inconveniences necessarily connected with the advantages of a free government. To avoid an arbitrary discretion in the courts, it is indispensable that they should be bound down by strict rules [of statutory construction and interpretation] and precedents, which serve to define and point out their duty in every particular case that comes before them; and it will readily be conceived from the variety of controversies which grow out of the folly and wickedness of mankind, that the records of those precedents must unavoidably swell to a very considerable bulk, and must demand long and laborious study to acquire a competent knowledge of them.”
[Federalist Paper No. 78, Alexander Hamilton]

“Another effect of public instability is the unreasonable advantage it gives to the sagacious, the enterprising, and the moneyed few over the industrious and uniformed mass of the people. Every new regulation concerning commerce or revenue, or in any way affecting the value of the different species of property, presents a new harvest to those who watch the change, and can trace its consequences; a harvest, reared not by themselves, but by the toils and cares of the great body of their fellow-citizens. This is a state of things in which it may be said with some truth that laws are made for [benefit of] the FEW, not for the MANY.”
[Federalist Paper No. 62, James Madison]

There is so much information to digest within the legal realm that it can sometimes be difficult to know where to even begin for the neophyte who has received no legal training. Add to this problem the following additional aggravating factors, and you have what might at first glance seem like an insurmountable volume of information to digest:

1. The fact that K-12 public schools and even universities teach NOTHING about law to the average American. Law, in fact, has become a “priesthood”, and those who know it serve the modern day function of a witch doctor for a civil religion of socialism. The average American, even if they wanted to learn about law, is not able to do it in any public or government school, because public servants who run these institutions don’t want the master knowing how to supervise them. Even people who have a PhD very seldom have taken even ONE COURSE in law. This, in fact, is how most of the evil is perpetuated and the reason we as a country are perceived as “an abomination” by much of the rest of the world:

“One who turns his ear from hearing the law [God’s law or man’s law], even his prayer is an abomination.”
[Prov. 28:9, Bible, NKJV]

2. The skepticism of the audience our ministry attracts, in which so many Members insist on evidence to prove everything we assert.
3. The fact that our Member Agreement and Disclaimer encourage and even mandate that readers should challenge, not trust, and consistently question everything that everyone says, including us.

4. The fact that what may appear to be extraordinary or sensational claims made by our Ministry require extraordinary proof in order to even get people's attention so they will even want to study subjects we cover. Media sensationalism and reality TV has desensitized the average American to the point where they are numb to the truth and don't trust anyone anymore, no matter how much evidence you hand them. You will find no greater source on the internet of evidence to prove the subjects we cover here.

"For the mystery of lawlessness is already at work; only He [God] who now restrains will do so until He is taken out of the way. And then the lawless one [Satan] will be revealed, whom the Lord will consume with the breath of His mouth and destroy with the brightness of His coming. The coming of the lawless one [Satan] is according to the working of Satan, with all power, signs, and lying wonders, and with all unrighteous deception among those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth, that they might be saved [don't be one of them!]. And for this reason God will send them strong delusion [from their own government], that they should believe a lie, that they all may be condemned who did not believe the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness."
[2 Thess. 2:3-17, Bible, NKJV]

5. The fact that the government challenges and even fraudulently denies our more important research because they are attempting to protect their illegal activities.

"The truth about the corruption with our own government is so precious to the government that it must be surrounded by a bodyguard of lies."

All of the above factors combine to impose a high burden of proof upon us and an enormous logistical problem in getting the minimum but most important information and tools to the curious but brain washed American public to institute expedient change. What many of our Members have said they want most is a simplified checklist of measurable steps they can follow to achieve basic freedom and sovereignty that directs their studies to abbreviate and accelerate the progress of their freedom education. Achieving the goal of being free and sovereign on your part requires the following skills:

1. A thorough understanding of the concept of freedom and liberty.
2. A basic understanding of law.
3. A basic understanding of how to do legal research.
4. Computer skills, so that you can prepare administrative correspondence and legal pleadings.
5. A basic understanding of constitutionally protected rights so that they can recognize when they are being violated and know what to do about it.
6. An understanding of the tax codes and regulations.
7. A basic understanding of WHO you are in relation to the government, including your citizenship and domicile and all the legal terms that describe it accurately.
8. Developing your critical thinking skills to the point where you know what questions are important to ask when you are confronted by government employees in order to silence their ignorant presumptions about you.
9. A basic understanding of the administrative remedies, forms, and procedures for defending your sovereignty and rights available to SEDM Members.
10. A basic understanding of the legal remedies available for defending your sovereignty and rights available to SEDM Members.
11. A basic understanding of how to navigate the SEDM Website.
12. A method to connect to like-minded men and women who share your concern so that you can have a support network and share what you learn with others as you participate in the Ministry.

We have painstakingly prepared this document in furtherance of the above goals so that you as a new or prospective Member can quickly come up to speed and function confidently in defending your rights and sovereignty.

As a general rule, we recommend the following approach to studying this document and other documents on our website to avoid becoming overwhelmed or distracted, given that it covers a very broad range of subjects that in many cases at least initially are unfamiliar to the average American:

1. This document is organized in a progression of increasing complexity:
 - 1.1. Supporting links for many subjects are provided for reference purposes ONLY for those readers who wish to study the subject mentioned further.
 - 1.2. You need not and should not read any of the supporting links the first time you go through a document.
2. This document is designed to function both as a learning tool, and as a reference tool for those who have already learned the subjects it covers. No matter how long you have been studying freedom subjects, there is something here that will be new and useful to anyone and everyone at every stage of their development. Don't expect to know or to learn everything here immediately or even the first year of study. We are still learning after studying the subject for over ten years. Be patient with yourself.

3. Read the entirety of this document at least once WITHOUT following any of the supporting links provided, focusing ONLY on this document so you can get a firm grasp of what it is about. This will help you avoid getting distracted.
4. After reading the document completely, skim back over it and follow ONLY supporting links that interest you or which cover subjects that are important or relevant to your circumstances. A year from now, you may wish to reread it again as a review.
5. The best place to learn the basics for those who are just getting started with law is the SEDM Liberty University. Turn off the TV and systematically follow the procedural steps in the order listed to read and review the materials. You have been deliberately dumbed down during your public school education about law and history, so there is a lot to make up for. Print out the Table of Contents of the Liberty University and use it as a checklist to go through it.

IMPORTANT NOTE: This document and our website are updated frequently to reflect changes in the law, changes in government procedures and forms, and changes in our website. We therefore highly recommend that if you are relying on this document to make important decisions, you should obtain and use the most recent version available. You can obtain the latest version from the opening page of our website (<http://sedm.org>) in the banner entitled “START HERE” surrounded by the checkered flags.

If you want to see if you have the latest version, the version date for the document you have is indicated in the lower left corner of every page of the document, in the document footer. This same method of document version control is implemented in every document available on our website. This date is also indicated in the right column of our Forms/Pubs page in the column entitled “Date of Last Revision” so that you will know the version available on our website without the need to click on the link and open the document to check the version number indicated.

This document, like all other documents, services, and communication available from or through the SEDM website and ministry, is protected by the following franchises and agreements on our website:

You can view the above document from our opening page at <http://sedm.org> by clicking on the large letters that say “MINISTRY INTRODUCTION” in the pink box under “Membership Resources”. This is an excellent summary of what we do and why we do it for busy professionals.

2. Basic Checklist to Liberty

“And I heard another voice from heaven saying, “Come out of her [Babylon, the Great Harlot, a socialist democracy in which all “citizens” are in fact government “officers”], my people, lest you share in her sins, and lest you receive of her plagues. For her
